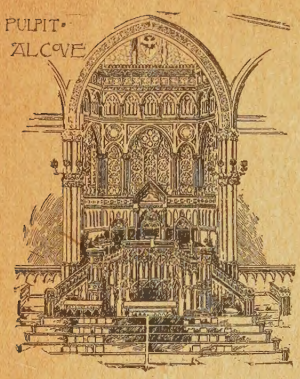
THE PULPIT ALCOVE.



WE publish an illustrated hand-book on the treatment of the PULPIT ALCOVE with its furniture, from an artistic and architectural point of view. We have made many reconstructions of such work, and should be pleased to submit sketches and photographs for any proposed changes. Correspondence solicited.

OUR work recently completed for the church at Oswego, and for the Goodwill Congregational Church, Syracuse, are examples of how we treat the complete interior.

Send for hand-books of mosaic, stained glass, color decorations, furniture, etc.

PROF. J. W. CHURCHILL, Elocution.

The Academy enjoys a national reputation and patronage, and fits large classes for the best colleges, for the scientific schools, and, in some cases, for the professional schools. The Classical Course is four years, and includes required and elective studies in English, Latin, Greek, French, German, Mathematics, History, and Natural Sciences, and prepares for the college courses leading to the A. B. degree. The English Department includes required and elective courses in the same subjects, the emphasis being laid on the mathematical and scientific studies. Students are prepared for the scientific schools and for college courses leading to the B. S. degree. The fourth year in this department is adapted to graduates of high schools and others who do not expect to go to college, or who wish to broaden their preparation for college, or who are to enter professional schools. The aggregate attendance exceeds three hundred and fifty, about half from New England and half from outside New England. One hundred and five went to college last year. The benevolent work of the school amounts to over four thousand dollars a year. For catalogue and further information, address the Principal.

ABBOT ACADEMY.

FOR YOUNG LADIES. SIXTY-THIRD YEAR.

ANDOVER, MASS.

Abbot Academy will begin its sixty-third year with enlarged opportunities for a thorough and refining education. The new building, Draper Hall, has been completed, and with its many modern conveniences will furnish a pleasant home for the English and German scholars, the latter occupying a wing of the building and having a separate table, where the conversation is under the direction of an experienced German lady teacher. The French students occupy another house by themselves.

The whole course of study covers four years, and embraces all the usual academical studies, special attention being given to Mental and Moral Philosophy, English and General Literature, the History of Art, and to the Latin, French, and German Languages. Superior advantages are offered in Music, Drawing, Painting, and Elocution. Pupils are received for a single year or more. This Academy also enjoys many incidental advantages through the other literary institutions in the same town, while easy access to Boston brings within its reach fine Music, Art Galleries, and Museums. The Academy has a fine Clark telescope, good working cabinets, models, and apparatus of its own. The school has been successfully conducted for many years by the same Principal, whose constant endeavor is to develop healthful, cultured, earnest Christian womanhood in every pupil.

The total expenses for board, including fuel, lights, and washing, and for tuition, except Music and Drawing, are $400.00 per annum. The sixty-third year begins on Thursday, Sept. 10, 1891. Apply for catalogues to W. F. DRAPER. For information or admission, to

ATLANTA UNIVERSITY,

ATLANTA, GA.

REV. HORACE BUMSTEAD, D. D., PRESIDENT.

The Institution has 600 students, under 26 officers and teachers, in all grades of study, from the primary school up through grammar, normal and collegiate courses.

Industrial training is given to boys in wood-working, iron-working, mechanical drawing, printing, farming, and shoemaking; and to girls in printing, cooking, sewing, dress-making, laundry work, and domestic economy.

The religious training given is thoroughly Christian, but strictly unsectarian. An eminent Georgian recently said: "The public school teachers furnished by Atlanta University have not only the education, but also the character needed, and they do as good work as is done in the white schools."

The more than 200 graduates from normal and college courses are spreading their leavening influence through Georgia and surrounding States. More than two thirds are teaching, many being principals of city schools. Hundreds of undergraduates are also teaching every summer. As many as 15,000 children are taught annually by teachers trained in the University.

The property consists of sixty acres of land within the corporate limits of Atlanta, four large brick buildings, substantially but very economically built, library of 7,000 volumes, apparatus, and industrial equipment, all unencumbered and free from debt. Besides about $26,000 of invested funds, mostly scholarships, it has no endowment.

An endowment of at least $300,000 for current expenses is urgently needed, and until it is secured, an appeal must be made for annual scholarships to carry on the work now organized.

An annual scholarship of $40 for each student will cover the cost of tuition over and above the nominal tuition fees paid by the student. Sunday schools, Christian Endeavor societies, and individuals frequently furnish one or more of these scholarships.

The Bulletin of Atlanta University, an eight-page monthly printed by our students, contains much additional information about our work. Subscriptions at fifty cents a year may be sent to the Treasurer of Atlanta University, Atlanta, Ga.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Rev. J. E. RANKIN, D. D., LL. D., President,

Also Professor of Moral Philosophy, International Law, and Science of Government.

OBJECT. This University was founded by Gen. O. O. Howard for all peoples under the sun. It has had among its pupils Asiatics, West Indians, North American Indians, Anglo-Saxons, and Afro-Americans. It welcomes all such to-day.

DEPARTMENTS. It has seven distinct departments, under forty competent Professors and Instructors: Theological, Medical, Legal, College, Preparatory, Normal, and Industrial.

EXPENSES. There is no charge for tuition in the Theological, College, Preparatory, Normal, and Industrial Departments. Students in these departments are charged for room-rent, and, if they board in Miner Hall, $8 per month for board.

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION. The Instructors aim to give the best of instruction in the most attractive way, through text-books, lectures, drills on the blackboard, and exercises in writing and speaking.

DISCIPLINE. The discipline is careful and strict, but parental and Christian in spirit.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES. Daily Chapel exercises are held at 12 M. Preaching by the President every Sunday, at 5 o'clock P. M.

NEEDS. This University is largely supported by the gifts of the benevolent; its Theological Department by the Stone Fund, through the A. M. A. Money in aid of Individuals sent to the President, any Professor, or the Treasurer, will be judiciously expended.

LOCATION. This is the most eligible in all the region. The site is on high ground, healthy, and with a commanding view of the Capitol, Washington Monument, the White House, Arlington, and the distant Potomac.

ENLARGEMENT. The Trustees confidently expect, year by year, to enlarge all departments of instruction, to keep pace with the improvement in modern methods, and to afford as good facilities as any similar institution in the country.

CHRISTIAN, BUT UNDENOMINATIONAL. This institution is always emphatically Christian. Its instructors believe in Christianity as the only basis of true culture; but pupils here are given no denominational bias.

FISK UNIVERSITY.

HISTORY.

The work of founding Fisk University was begun early in October, 1865. It was clearly seen that Nashville was a strategic point, at which should be built up a great central institution on a foundation broad enough to enable it to provide for every educational demand that should arise in the development of the newly emancipated race. Hence, in 1867, a charter was secured for a university. The name was given in honor of Gen. Clinton B. Fisk, who most heartily and efficiently co-operated in its establishment.

RESULTS.

Beginning with a people just emancipated, the growth of Fisk University fitly represents the educational progress of the race during a period of freedom covering a quarter of a century. When the "Fisk School" was started there were no public schools for colored children in Nashville, and there was no demand for instruction except in the simplest branches of a common-school education; the pupils were then all from the city. There are now in successful operation the following departments of instruction.

I. The Common English, which has been maintained to meet a continued need on the part of many of the patrons of the University.

II. The Normal, which has a course of study extending over four years, beginning with Latin and Algebra.

III. The College Preparatory, which has a course of study extending over three years, beginning with Latin and Algebra, and requiring two years of Greek.

IV. The College, which has a four-years course of study additional to that provided in the College Preparatory course.

V. Theological. Thus far the instruction in this Department has been fragmentary, but an appropriate building for a Theological Seminary is now under construction. A three-years course of study will be adopted and a Faculty provided, so as to place this Department on a satisfactory basis.

VI. Department of Music, with an extended course in both instrumental music and voice culture. There are 140 pupils in this Department. In addition, vocal music is taught throughout all the courses of study. The Mozart Society studies and renders the Classics in music.

VII. Industrial. This department of education has not been made a prominent feature in the educational work of Fisk University. Printing and Carpentry are, however, taught to classes of young men. The young women are instructed in Nursing, Cooking and Sewing.

GROUNDS AND BUILDINGS.

The University has a campus of over thirty acres, with buildings and other appliances for its educational work, which could not be replaced for $300,000.

ATTENDANCE.

The present number of students is over five hundred. Twenty States are represented.

ENDOWMENT.

The University is without endowment. The annual expenses, above the small income from students, are met by voluntary contributions, made directly to the University, or through the American Missionary Association which founded the University and has continually fostered it. THE DEMAND IS NOW IMPERATIVE FOR AN ADEQUATE ENDOWMENT. Haply some one reading these lines may find pleasure in helping towards this endowment.

EXPENSES.

The cost of room, board, and tuition is $12.00 per calendar month. Instruction in Instrumental Music is fifty cents per lesson, including use of instrument for practice.

The Scholastic Year 1891-92 will open September 28th.

For information address either of the undersigned.

Indigestion

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE.

Prepared according to the directions of Prof. E. N. HORSFORD.

This preparation promotes digestion without injury, and is pleasant to the taste.

It consists of phosphoric acid combined with the phosphates, forming an important and active principle and essential element of the gastric juice of the stomach. This fluid is necessary to a perfect digestion, and if the stomach is not supplied with it, indigestion will result.

Dr. E. V. WRIGHT, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., says:

"The peculiar combination of phosphates renders it most valuable in the treatment of digestive disorders."

Dr. E. J. WILLIAMSON, St. Louis, Mo., says:

"Marked beneficial results in imperfect digestion."

Dr. F. G. McGAVOCK, McGavock, Ark., says:

"It acts beneficially in obstinate indigestion."

"Every church and every minister upon the rolls of the denomination" are entitled to share in the distribution of the YEAR-BOOK. For this very practical purpose, "the rolls of the denomination" must be assumed to be the tables and list of the YEAR-BOOK, and the claim of any church or minister to receive it, errors excepted, does not arise until here reported and printed. To purchasers, the price is $1.00; or, in cloth, $1.25. Those entitled to receive it who prefer a cloth binding can have it in that form by sending 30 cents to

INTRODUCTORY.

THANKS are due to secretaries and friends whose diligence enables us to issue this YEAR-BOOK in June. Its earliest previous issue on the new basis has been August, and we have gained six to eight weeks this year. But the editor can speak for others as well as himself in saying that this gain can be and must be improved upon. The best practicable is not yet secured. A YEAR-BOOK in May, if all do their best, can greet the churches in 1892.

The coming International Council in London naturally awakens interest among the churches. It should have the benefit of much prayer, that the Master may be present, and the Spirit guide its deliberations and actions to results which will bless the churches in their union and activities, and promote Christ's kingdom in the world.

Before the issue of another YEAR-BOOK, many of the churches will be called upon to elect delegates to the Eighth Triennial Session of the National Council, which is to be held in Minneapolis, beginning Wednesday, Oct. 12, 1892. Rev. Charles M. Lamson, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., has been appointed to preach the sermon on that occasion.

The vacancy on the Provisional Committee, occasioned by the death of Mr. Gates, of Chicago, has been filled by the election of President Cyrus Northrop, of Minneapolis, moderator of the last National Council, and the place made vacant on the Publishing Committee by the death of Rev. Henry M. Dexter has been filled by the election of Rev. Albert E. Dunning.

This YEAR-BOOK must not fail to add its word in grateful memory of HENRY MARTYN DEXTER. In the due place, on page 25, its record of him may be found; but the fact calls for specific mention that the existence of the YEAR-BOOK is more largely due to him than to any other. He recognized the need of such a medium of communication and bond of union among our churches, and his arguments and influence in the Council were the decisive factor which led that body to assume the publication of it. He has always been a member of its Publishing Committee. In one or two years he did much editorial work, and he has watched its issue and interests with a loving care which will be greatly missed. He has rendered wise and eminent service to the churches in many directions, for which his name will stand high on our roll of honor. Among these services his foresight and wisdom in the founding of the YEAR-BOOK will certainly be remembered.

Another name of the dead of 1890 is suggested by that of Dr. Dexter as worthy of remembrance here. Rev. Alexander Hannay, after a most fruitful ministry in Dundee, Scotland, and in London, had been for twenty years the Secretary of the Congregational Union of England and Wales, and editor of their YEAR-BOOK, filling his position with exceptional ability and usefulness, and holding the respect and love of all. He visited this country in 1880 as the delegate to our National Council in St. Louis. At that meeting Dr. Dexter was moderator, and in the addresses of that occasion between these now sainted brethren the thought of an International Congregational Council first found public and significant expression. Eight years later Dr. Hannay carried the thought to the Australian Jubilee, and it there bore fruit in the action of that body, which has resulted in the coming Council at London.

No two men had so much to do with the origin of this Council, and the providence which, within twenty-four hours of each other, on opposite sides of the Atlantic, called these brethren so suddenly to their rest, is remarkable. If the dead are interested in what the living do, we may not doubt their unseen presence when the delegates assemble in London, and their memories must have a mighty influence there.

The number of ministers who fail to report changes in their post-offices to the YEAR-BOOK is still too large. The YEAR-BOOK addressed to them is left to seek them vainly at a former residence, either to be lost there, or returned to Boston at a double and vain expense for postage, and, after a lapse of weeks or months, a letter will often come, complaining that they have not received their YEAR-BOOK, and asking, if not demanding, that it be sent to them. Of course, such persons have lost all claim to that YEAR-BOOK, and their carelessness has subjected the churches to an injustice too serious in the aggregate to be made light of.

Any man who receives from the churches the favor involved in placing and keeping his name on the roll of ministers, and giving him the YEAR-BOOK annually, is under honorable obligation to see to it that his name and address are properly reported; to be as careful about this as about his subscription to his favorite paper.

Will not brethren all be kind enough to attend to this? See that your State secretary always knows your post-office, and if it is changed after Jan. 1, before the issue of the YEAR-BOOK, report the fact directly to the editor.

SAMUEL B. FORBES.

HARTFORD, CONN., May 30, 1891.

INTERNATIONAL CONGREGATIONAL COUNCIL.

THE plans for this great assembly have been carried successfully forward during the year. The meetings will be held in London, July 13-22. Rev. Robert W. Dale, of Birmingham, will preside, and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Edward P. Goodwin, of Chicago.

The topics for discussion are grouped under four general heads: —

I. CONGREGATIONALISM DOMESTIC.
II. CONGREGATIONALISM IN RELATION TO THE NATION.
III. CONGREGATIONALISM AND THE CHURCH CATHOLIC.
IV. CONGREGATIONALISM AND THE WORLD.

The list of delegates from this country, as given below, consists of (1) those originally appointed by the Council at Worcester; (2) those who have been appointed by various State bodies, one each, as they were invited by the Council to do; (3) delegates named by benevolent societies and theological seminaries, whose nominations were invited by the committee; and (4) those appointed by the committee of eleven to complete the quota of one hundred, and to fill vacancies as authorized by the Council.

This committee of eleven, appointed by the delegates named at Worcester, with three changes occasioned by death or resignation, now consists of Samuel B. Capen, Rev. James W. Cooper, Rev. Albert E. Dunning, Rev. Samuel B. Forbes, Rev. Henry A. Hazen, Rev. Arthur Little, Moses Merrill, Rev. William H. Moore, Rev. Alonzo H. Quint, Rev. Edwin B. Webb, and G. Henry Whitcomb. At the request of the English committee they have named a committee of three delegates, Samuel B. Capen, Rev. John K. McLean, and Pres. Cyrus Northrop to act with a similar English committee as a preliminary committee of arrangements.

The list of delegates stands as follows: —

THE NEW UNI ON CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

THE NEW UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

In Rockville, Ct., was dedicated in September, 1890. It is built of Monson, Mass., granite. The dimensions of the church upon the ground are 132 feet long by 72 feet wide, 161 feet from base to top of wood work on tower. Two colors of stone were used, the principal part of the trimmings made of the lighter shade, and the ashler of dark. In the arches, however, the light and dark alternate.

On the first floor is the main vestibule, connecting by the two tower staircases with the spacious gallery, and also with the auditorium. On the west is the chapel, connecting with arches and folding doors with the ladies' parlor or classroom on the south, with the large classroom and pastor's study and choir seats. Above, on either side, are three classrooms, the arches connecting with the chapel, being closed when desirable, with handsome hangings. In the basement, which opens also off of Union Street, is the large dining hall, 36 x 45 feet square, connecting with a large committee room on the south. On the north is the kitchen, with its large range, hot and cold water in the sinks, double china closets, and abundance of drawers. Beyond are toilet-rooms, and staircase leading to north entrance. On Union Street there are three large rooms for infant class, library, etc. The pastor's study and every department are most complete in every appointment. In this study is a set bowl, handsome Derby desk, plate-glass mirror, chairs, all of antique oak, and in perfect harmony with the finish of the church. The auditorium, vestibule, and doors are finished in antique oak, the rest of the building in cypress. The carpets and handsomely frescoed and tinted walls and vaulted ceiling all harmonize perfectly. The acoustic properties of the auditorium are something wonderful. The pastor says he never before spoke in church or hall which can compare with it in this respect. There are yet to be added a protected desk light for the pulpit and a shaded reflector for the organ. The seating capacity of the auditorium is 600; of the gallery, 300; of the chapel, 300. This capacity can be extended by placing chairs in vacant spaces without obstructing any aisles, from 100 to 200 more. Warren H. Hayes, of Minneapolis, was the architect. The contract price was $52,483, afterward increased to $58,483, on account of changing the material from brick to Monson granite.

NOTE. — The limitations of the tables do not in all cases admit exactness. In the table of theological education, students who did not graduate are counted, and without distinction from graduates; but a name occurring in more than one seminary list is not repeated; and in the college lists, a few students who were not alumni are counted with the graduates.

The editor renews his earnest request to friends and to the secretaries of the State bodies for prompt information of the death of Congregational ministers, and for full and exact information on the model of the sketches above given. Obituary and eulogy beyond, it is impossible to use here.

THE NATIONAL SOCIETIES.

AMERICAN BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Founded in 1810.

Vice-President. — Eliphalet W. Blatchford, Esq., Chicago, Ill.
Corresponding Secretaries. — N. G. Clark, D. D.; Edmund K. Alden, D. D.; Judson Smith, D. D.
Field Secretary. — Charles C. Creegan, D. D.
Treasurer. — Langdon S. Ward.
Editorial Secretary. — Elnathan E. Strong, D. D.
Publishing and Purchasing Agent. — Charles E. Swett.
P. O. Address of the above, 1 Somerset Street, Boston, Mass.
District Secretaries. — Rev. Charles H. Daniels, 121 Bible House, New York City. Simon J. Humphrey, D. D., Rev. A. N. Hitchcock, PH. D., 151 Washington Street, Chicago, Ill.

The American Board, the oldest Foreign Missionary Society in the United States, was formed at Bradford, Mass., June 29, 1810, and held its first meeting at Farmington, Conn., Sept. 5 of the same year. Its mission fields now occupied are Northern and Western Mexico; the Hawaiian and Micronesian Islands of the Pacific; Northern and Southern Japan; Northern China; Shansi in Northwestern China; Foochow and Hong Kong in Southern China; Ceylon; Madura in Southern India; the Marathi field in Western India, including the important centres of Bombay and Ahmednagar; East Central Africa; the Zulus of Southern Africa; West Central Africa; Eastern Turkey, from Mosul to Erzroom, including Mardin, Bitlis, Van, and the educational centre, Harpoot; Central Turkey, including the important cities of Aintab, Adana, and Marash; Western Turkey, from Trebizond to Constantinople, including Marsovan, Sivas, Cesarea, Smyrna, Broosa, Nicomedia, and Adabazar; European Turkey, from Constantinople to Samokov in Bulgaria, including Monastir in Macedonia and Philippolis in East Roumelia; Austria, emphasizing the Bohemian work in Prague; and Northern and Northwestern Spain, this work centring in San Sebastian, on the Bay of Biscay.

This wide-extended work embraces direct evangelistic effort through missionaries and native helpers; an immense educational trust, extending from the primary school to the college and theological seminary; Sunday-school instruction; the preparation, publication, and circulation, in different languages, of books, tracts, and newspapers; assistance in the erection of buildings for churches and schools; grants in aid to feeble churches and to native home-missionary societies; the humane service of missionary physicians, sometimes in the care of large dispensaries and hospitals; also charitable ministry, continuous and varied, to the sick, the poor, and the oppressed.

Pastors, in presenting the foreign work to their churches, are desired to emphasize this fact,— that these several departments of labor on the foreign field are carried on under one administration, and that contributions, therefore, should be proportionately enlarged. If one half of the benevolent contributions of the churches should be given to this broad work of reaching the unevangelized millions of other lands, it would probably not be too large a proportion.

The Woman's Boards, which co-operate with the American Board, are doing a royal service, not only securing — mainly from the women of the churches — large contributions, — the annual average of which, during recent years, has been over $140,000, — but also educating and training children and young people to an intelligent interest in missionary work. These Boards can be addressed at No. 1 Congregational House, Boston, at 59 Dearborn Street, Chicago, and at 1316 Mason Street, San Francisco.

The latest statistics of the American Board report 22 missions, 1,058 stations and out-stations, 533 missionaries and assistant missionaries, 2,417 native laborers, 387 churches, with over 36,000 members, — over 4,550 of these received on confession of faith during the past year, — 136 high schools and seminaries for young men and young women, with nearly 8,000 students, and a total of over 47,000 children and youth under Christian instruction. The appropriations for 1891 already amount to over $650,000, and it is desirable that the receipts for this year should reach, if possible, $800,000. An average advance in donations of about fifty per cent will secure this honorable record. Attention is called to the Missionary Herald, the Mission Dayspring, and Life and Light; also to the American Board Almanac and to the Children's Morning Star Mission, a special for Sunday schools. Our main instrumental reliance is upon the pastors of churches, themselves full of missionary information and zeal.

AMERICAN COLLEGE AND EDUCATION SOCIETY.

The American Education Society was organized and received its charter from Massachusetts in 1816. The College Society, as the other organization was popularly called, was formed in 1843. These two societies were united in 1874, and the United Society is doing the work of both the original societies. The charter of the United Society was received in 1874 from the State of Massachusetts.

Officers, 1890-1. (Office, No. 10 Congregational House, Boston, Mass.)

President. — Hon. Nathaniel Shipman, of Hartford, Ct.
Vice-President. — Samuel Holmes, New York City.
Secretary. — Rev. John A. Hamilton, D. D., Boston.
College Field Secretary. — Rev. J. L. Maile.
Western Secretary. — Rev. Theo. Y. Gardner.
Treasurer. — James M. Gordon, Boston.
Assistant Treasurer. — Rev. A. H. Clapp, D. D., Bible House, New York.

In both departments the Society has had a large agency in the civilization of the great West. The men who were pioneers in the work of preaching the gospel in the new settlements, and in the founding of churches and schools, were largely educated by this Society. The colleges, which are now among the foremost in these Western fields, were largely built up by the same agency.

The whole number of young men assisted by the Society in their studies for the ministry since 1816 is 7,800. The institutions at the West which have been assisted by the Society since 1843 are the following, viz.: Western Reserve, Illinois, Wabash, and Marietta Colleges, and Lane Theological Seminary. These five are the institutions which the Society took under its care at the beginning, in 1843. Those which have since been received on the list are Knox, Beloit, Wittenburg, Oberlin, and Berea Colleges, the College of California, Pacific University, Olivet, Ripon, Iowa, Carleton, Doane, Drury, Washburn, and Colorado Colleges, Pacific Theological Seminary, Yankton College, Fargo, and Pomona.

Those at present on the Society's list are Doane, Pacific University, Rollins, Whitman, Yankton, Fargo, and Pomona.

The number of young men receiving assistance from the Society during the last financial year is 380.

The Education Society was formed to meet a pressing need. The great movement of emigration toward the West was setting in with strength. The American Board had been organized a few years before, and the cause of Foreign Missions was taking a strong hold upon the churches. But then, as always, "the laborers were few." Ever since the close of the Revolutionary War there had been influences at work which checked the growth of evangelical religion, and the number of young men coming forward for the work of the ministry was much below the demand. It was at that time that the Education Society began its work of helping young men into the Christian ministry. Through its aid a host of preachers was raised up to go with the moving colonies into the new Territories of the West, or to go into foreign fields to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Without the assistance thus afforded it would have been quite impossible, in human judgment, to furnish men to fill the pulpits in the East and in the growing West, and to carry forward the work of the American Board. The ministers aided by this Society have had large participation in founding churches, schools, and colleges throughout these newer States; while nearly or quite one half the ordained missionaries of the American Board have come from among the Society's beneficiaries.

Eighteen months ago, the Society, in the interest of Western College aid, created the office of College Field Secretary, and called to the same the Rev. J. L. Maile, Superintendent of Home Missions in Nebraska. He has now been practically in the service but little more than one year. It is the hope of the Directors that, by the aid of the Field Secretary, the work of raising money for the new colleges can soon be successfully done without calling in agents of particular colleges. Pastors are giving their hearty co-operation to this change of method, and it seems to be working successfully. A good beginning has also been made this year, in assisting young men to prepare to preach the gospel to the Germans, Norwegians, and Bohemians.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I do hereby give and bequeath to the "American College and Education Society" the sum of —— dollars, to be paid within —— months after my decease, and to be applied to the uses and purposes of that Society.

☞ Thirty dollars constitutes an honorary membership.

As this publication of accounts is called for too early to admit of the full statement for the fiscal year ending April 30, 1891, we will only state in general that the total receipts in both departments are not likely to differ materially from those of the previous year, which were $91,042.05.

THE AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

Organized, 1853. Chartered, 1854.

Headquarters, Library, Congregational House, Boston.

OFFICERS.

President. — Hon. Rufus S. Frost, Chelsea.
Vice-Presidents. — Samuel Johnson, Wm. M. Taylor, D. D.
Corresponding and Recording Secretary. — Rev. Morton Dexter.
Treasurer. — C. C. Burr, Auburndale.
Librarian. — Rev. Wm. H. Cobb, Newton Centre.
Assistant Librarians. — Miss Mary E. Stone, Chelsea; Miss Emma E. White, Cambridge.

Directors. — Edward A. Studley, Chairman; Alonzo H. Quint, D. D.; N. G. Clark, D. D.; William F. Richardson; M. F. Dickinson; S. Brainard Pratt; Rev. Joshua Coit; Rev. B. F. Hamilton, D. D.; Wm. H. Hodgkins; Thomas Todd; Elijah Horr, D. D.; C. M. Whittlesey; William O. Blaney; Samuel B. Capen; Rev. DeWitt S. Clark; Henry E. Cobb; William H. Emerson; J. M. W. Hall; Mortimer B. Mason; Rev. Charles B. Rice; G. Henry Whitcomb; Rev. H. A. Hazen; Rev. A. E. Dunning; Rev. Nehemiah Boynton; George P. Smith; A. S. Lovett; Jonathan A. Lane; Wm. A. Paine; with the Secretary and the Treasurer.

OBJECTS.

To preserve, improve, and promote the best use of the Congregational Library; to care for the Congregational House, and remove the incumbrances upon it; to further the general interests of Congregationalism.

FINANCES.

The Association owns the Congregational House, Boston. This was bought in 1871 for about $300,000; the expense of refitting was about $125,000 more. Present debt, $174,000, on which four per cent interest is paid. The income from rents meets current expenses, and at present is slowly reducing the debt. If the debt can be speedily cancelled, there is a good prospect of replacing the present structure by a new Congregational House. Subscriptions for this purpose are earnestly solicited, and may be invested in second mortgage bonds, with ample security.

THE LIBRARY.

This numbers 29,403 volumes, 55,960 pamphlets, and 34,086 unbound numbers of periodicals, besides an immense number of duplicates. The reading table contains the leading British and American reviews and religious magazines, with many valuable secular periodicals. The building is a fire-proof structure, entirely separable from the rest of the house, and admirably adapted to its purpose. The collection is already of inestimable worth, especially in all matters pertaining to the fathers of New England. The books most needed here are eagerly sought for by other collectors. Although our Library is by far the best in America in its specialties, and also rich in the "books out of which other books are made," it has many and great deficiencies, which can only be made up by money, liberally provided and carefully expended. Everything pertaining to the religious history and literature of New England meets the most prominent object of the library. Some of its special departments are church manuals, election sermons, biographies, genealogies, and town histories. Friends who have books or pamphlets likely to be useful here are invited to correspond with the Librarian. The point which most needs strengthening is the department of Early Congregational Literature (before 1650). Donations for this special purpose will be most gratefully received. As the invaluable collection of Dr. Dexter was bequeathed to Yale University, it becomes more imperative on those who sustain the Congregational Library to supply the resources which will make it increasingly worthy of its name.

Let every pastor stir up the liberal-minded in his parish, showing them the value of this investment. Let every Congregationalist who has published anything see that the Library has his works in full. Let gifts pour in according to our several ability; not only into the general treasury, but also specifically for the Library. If every one who reads these words will immediately do what he can, this will be a prosperous year for the cause we all have at heart.

WM. H. COBB, Librarian.

Work Done. — January, 1891, the Union had on its books a list of 2,044 houses of worship, and 270 parsonages completed.

Left Over. — Fifty-eight urgent applications, some of which had waited months for the aid that could not be voted for lack of funds.

Relative Growth. — In May, 1880, the Union had aided in building 1,070 houses of worship and two parsonages. Dec. 31, 1890, the number of houses of worship aided was 2,044, and the number of parsonages 270; nearly as many houses of worship in the last ten years as in the first twenty-eight years. All but two of the parsonages have been built since 1882, and still the work of organizing keeps ahead of the work of building. Besides this, the YEAR-BOOK shows that 683 of our Congregational churches have no house of worship and more than half the churches own no parsonage; a glorious opportunity for large generosity.

Legacies. — To make these absolutely sure, such as can do it are best pleased when they pay them while living. It is a joy to benefactors to see the good done by their gifts. Great care is needed in writing a WILL to give the exact corporate name of the society meant. In this case, it should be "The American Congregational Union, a Corporation duly organized and existing by and under the laws of the State of New York." A small amount of care saves a large amount of litigation.

The Quarterly. — Aims to set forth the freshest facts in regard to the work; gives suggestions as to building so as to aid contributors and applicants for aid. The co-operation of pastors, Sunday-school superintendents, officers of ladies' societies, and of the Y. P. S. C. E., is most cordially welcomed in extending the circulation of the QUARTERLY, and in the wide and free distribution of leaflets, envelopes, pledge cards, offering boxes, etc., etc.

Our Relation to the Churches. — This is open, cordial, inviting. Any person sufficiently interested in the work to send to the Treasury an offering of Five Dollars entitles himself to the QUARTERLY and all the privileges of a voting member for one year. Any person sufficiently interested in the work to send an offering of Fifty Dollars to the Treasury becomes a Life Member of the Society. Any church by sending an offering of either of the above sums to the Treasury, can elect an Annual or Life Member as its representative in the management of the work of the Union for the sums named.

The HOME MISSIONARY, a monthly magazine, published by the Society, at sixty cents a year, including postage, gives a running account of the progress of the work in all parts of the country, largely from the pens of the superintendents and missionaries personally engaged in it. The monthly issue is 29,864 copies. An ANNUAL REPORT sums up the results of the year. Leaflets and Tracts for the times are published as occasion calls, designed to help pastors, Sunday-school officers, and friends of home missions generally, in awakening and keeping alive an intelligent, practical, growing interest in the work. These may be had, free of charge, at any time, by addressing the officers of the Society at the Bible House.

For more than sixty-four years the Society has been organizing churches in the West and South, and aiding in the support of their ministers till those churches are able to assume the whole expense. Its missionaries have from the first organized Sunday schools, provided proper teachers for them, and by watchful oversight have secured their permanence and highest usefulness.

In connection with the labor of its missionaries, 5,409 churches have been organized and 2,607 have come to self-support. It has collected and disbursed in cash, $13,348,844.46; and in clothing, books, and other supplies, largely the offerings of Christian women, $1,797,498; in all, $15,146,342.46. The additions to the churches have been 376,961.

In 1883, a Woman's Department was opened. Its object is to interest the women of our churches all over the country, and through them the children, more directly in the work; not to the diminishing of their helpful labor in the way of home-missionary boxes (of clothing, etc.), but to secure also their gifts of money for the support of teachers in the Indian Territory and elsewhere, and for various special uses, as called for from time to time. Their aid in this line is steadily growing, but much more is needed. The Woman's Home Missionary Association, having its office in Boston, an auxiliary of this Society, is the channel of the Home Missionary offerings of the women of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

The number of missionaries employed in its sixty-fourth year (1889–90) was 1,849, 1,332 of them in States and Territories west and south of New York. They preached regularly in 3,251 stations, and at frequent intervals in many hundreds more. The number of Sunday-school and Bible-class scholars was 142,000. The additions to the churches were 10,650; 6,608 of them on confession of Christ. Churches organized, 184; reached self-support, 56.

The sixty-fourth year's receipts were in cash, $671,171.39; in supplies, $70,135; in all, $741,306.39.

At least $700,000 in cash is needed this year properly to sustain the missionaries now in the field. To take up only such new work as the providence and Spirit of God manifestly call upon the Society to assume at once, $100,000 more is imperatively required. The Society is doing much more work than ever before among the foreign-born in all parts of the country. At nearly every meeting of the Executive Committee chosen men are sent to new fields at the front, where they are most needed, but where their support involves heavy outlay by the Society. For securing the means essential to the carrying on of this great work the Society depends, under God, on the zealous co-operation of the pastors and members of the Congregational churches of the land.

Financial Secretary for Indian Missions. — Rev. CHARLES W. SHELTON.
Secretary of Woman's Bureau. — Miss D. E. EMERSON, Bible House, New York City.

AIM AND WORK.

To preach the gospel to the poor. It originated in a sympathy with the almost friendless slaves. Since emancipation, its main work has been in the South, preparing the colored people for their duties as citizens and Christians; also opening schools and establishing churches among the whites, especially in the mountain regions. It also sustains missions among the Indians in the West, and the Chinese in California.

Scholars taught by former pupils of our schools estimated at 200,000.

MAGAZINE.

The American Missionary is published monthly, at fifty cents a year; but will be sent gratuitously, if desired, to the Missionaries of the Association; to Life Members; to all clergymen who take up collections for the Association; to Superintendents of Sabbath Schools; to college libraries; to Theological Seminaries; to Societies of Inquiry on Missions; and to every donor who does not prefer to take it as a subscriber, and contributes in a year not less than five dollars.

WANTS.

An increase of funds to support missionaries and teachers, build chapels and schoolhouses, aid students in course of education, and supplies of every kind for the multitudes of poor and needy. Cash or supplies can be sent to the Treasurer or District Secretaries. Current expenditures require for this year, $500,000: $41,000 per month, or over $1,300 per day.

FORM OF A BEQUEST.

I GIVE and BEQUEATH the sum of ——— dollars, to "The American Missionary Association," incorporated by act of the Legislature of the State of New York.

The will should be attested by three witnesses (in some States three are required, in other States only two), who should write against their names their places of residence (if in cities, the street and number). The following form of attestation will answer for every State in the Union: "Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said (A B) as his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, who, at the request of the said (A B), and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses." In some States it is required that charitable bequests should be made at least two months before the death of the testator, but this rule does not apply to bequests in New York State to this Association.

The Woman's Home Missionary Association, whose office is in Boston, have given very liberal support to the work of the Commission, from the early days of the movement. They now support eight teachers — six in Utah and two in New Mexico.

The Woman's Home Missionary Unions of Connecticut, Vermont, New York, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas, Dakota, and Missouri are auxiliary to the Commission, and render much valuable and most welcome aid.

The two offices of the Commission are in the charge of competent clerks, under the supervision of the Secretary. Correspondence may be addressed to New West Education Commission at either office. Letters intended for the Secretary alone should be marked "Personal."

"The work of the New West Commission as a whole, comprising its permanent academies and its common schools, its Sabbath schools, and Christian Endeavor societies, its religious services and pastoral work, is much wider in its reach, more extended and powerful in its influence, and far grander in its opportunities and its promise than the churches that sustain it, or than even the Directors of the Commission, suppose." — Report of Committee.

THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

BANGOR THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Bangor, Me.

Opened October, 1816.

FACULTY.

Occasional courses of lectures on practical subjects connected with the ministry, ministerial work and experience are given by pastors and others.

Terms of Admission. — Bangor Seminary is open to all denominations of Christians. Candidates for admission must produce testimony of their church membership and of their collegiate education. If they have not pursued a college course, they will be examined, and must exhibit mental training and attainments sufficient, in the judgment of the Faculty, to warrant their entering upon a course of theological study. Those whose age or circumstances forbid the pursuit of the complete course of study may, at the discretion of the Faculty, be admitted to the studies of the Middle year, and continue their course with the full privileges of the Seminary.

Course of Study. — Junior Year, Hebrew Grammar. Principles of Interpretation, Exegesis of the Greek and Hebrew Scriptures; Lectures on Old Testament Theology, and on New Testament Theology; New Testament Greek; Introductory Philosophy, with text-books and lectures; Essays, and Lectures on Style and English Literature.

Middle Year, Systematic Theology; Ancient Church History; Exegetical studies continued; New Testament Greek continued; Vocal Culture and Oratory.

Senior Year, Mediæval and Modern Church History; Homiletics; Pastoral Theology and Church Polity; Exegetical studies continued; New Testament Greek continued.

Special Instruction in New Testament Greek. — Attention is specially called to the provision for instruction in New Testament Greek. The demands of the churches for pastors have been greater than could be supplied with men of collegiate education. The Seminary has therefore admitted students who are well qualified in other respects, but have no classical training. These are usually persons who by reason of age or other circumstances are unable to delay longer their theological studies, and cannot wisely be counselled to seek further preparation in some classical institution. With reference to the needs of this class, special instruction in New Testament Greek has been provided.

Preaching — As it is believed to be conducive to the best professional training to combine practice with theory, and as special facilities are afforded in the comparatively destitute missionary fields in the immediate neighborhood of the Seminary, students are allowed to exercise their gifts in holding meetings and in preaching as opportunities may offer, under the express approbation of the Faculty, it being provided that the prescribed exercises of the Seminary are not neglected. This privilege is enlarged after licensure at the close of the Middle Year.

Post-graduate Scholarships. — Two scholarships have been recently established for graduates of this Seminary. One is in Bowdoin College, and is for the purpose of aiding any student who, after graduating in the Seminary, desires to take a post-graduate year in the College The other is for the benefit of any student who wishes to take a fourth year of study in the Seminary.

Expenses. — There is no charge for tuition, rooms, furniture, library, or any privilege of the Seminary. The dormitory has been thoroughly repaired and refitted. The rooms are carpeted and furnished. The income of the Washburn fund and some other funds, given expressly to aid members of the Seminary, will be distributed to those who need.

Library. — The Seminary has an excellent library, numbering sixteen thousand volumes, specially selected to meet the wants of the students. There is a permanent library fund, with the income of which constant additions are made of the latest and most valuable literature.

The next seminary year will open on Thursday, Sept. 10, 1891.

The next anniversary will occur on Wednesday, June 2, 1892.

Calendar. — The annual period of study is divided into three Sessions by two recesses. The next Seminary year begins on Wednesday, September 16, 1891, and ends June 9, 1892. Recesses, Dec. 21-Jan. 4; March 17-21; vacation, June 9-Sept. 14.

Course of Study. — This is arranged so as to secure continuity and progress. The Junior Year is devoted to Hebrew, N. T. Greek, Biblical Exegesis and History, Fundamental Theology; the Middle, chiefly to Biblical and Systematic Theology; the Senior, mainly to Sacred Rhetoric, Pastoral Theology, History of Christian Life and Doctrine. Instruction in Elocution (lectures and exercises in vocal culture) is continued through the course. In the Middle and Senior Years time is reserved for elective work. The elective courses for 1891-2 are: O. T. Theology, N. T. Introduction, Exegesis, Philosophy of Religion, Social Economics, Optionals in Arabic, Aramaic, Egyptology or Assyriology, Greek, German, Philosophy, Vocal Music.

Fourth Year for advanced study. Each member of the Advance Class chooses his studies, subject to approval by the Faculty, and receives from the professors in the departments chosen personal direction and assistance. Special facilities are afforded for private reading and research. Six scholarships ($200 each) are available for members of this class.

Library and Museum. — The Library now numbers more than 48,000 volumes, is constantly increased, and is open every week-day for the examination and drawing of books. A full reference library has been opened on the ground floor of Brechin Hall. The Museum comprises objects relating to missionary life and work, a monumental slab from Nimrûd, a relief model of Jerusalem, and a collection, recently greatly increased, of Palestinian flowers, birds, animals, reptiles, insects, domestic utensils, weapons, coins, rolls, inscriptions, etc., constituting a remarkably large and rich biblical museum in which may be seen a multitude of objects referred to in the Bible.

A well-furnished Gymnasium is open to the use of the students.

Location. — The Seminary was located with a view to the advantages of uninterrupted study. These advantages have been retained, and are accounted of increasing value. At the same time, through the rise and growth of cities in the immediate vicinity, the students of the Seminary have special opportunities for studying various conditions of church work, and different methods of preaching. Andover is within four miles of Lawrence, ten of Lowell and Haverhill, fifteen of Salem, and twenty of Cambridge and Boston. The situation is remarkably healthful.

For information respecting Conditions of Membership, Studies (Prescribed, Elective, Optional), Lectureships, Honorary Scholarships, Pastoral Scholarships for Evangelistic work (Juniors), the Winkley and Seminary Fellowships ($600 each), Expenses and Pecuniary aid, see Catalogue, which may be obtained by application to the President of the Faculty.

CHICAGO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

FISK HALL. KEYES HALL. HAMMOND LIBRARY. CARPENTER HALL.

CHICAGO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Chicago, Ill.

Opened for Instruction, October, 1858.

FACULTY.

Franklin W. Fisk, D. D., LL. D., President and Wisconsin Professor of Sacred Rhetoric.
George N. Boardman, D. D., LL. D., Illinois Professor of Systematic Theology.
Samuel Ives Curtiss, D. D., New England Professor of Old Testament Literature and Interpretation, and Librarian.
G. Buckingham Willcox, D. D., Stone Professor of Pastoral Theology and Special Studies.
Hugh McDonald Scott, D. D., Sweetzer and Michigan Professor of Ecclesiastical History.
Rev. George H. Gilbert, PH. D., Iowa Professor of New Testament Literature and Interpretation.
Prof. J. R. J. Anthony, Instructor in Elocution.
Rev. G. A. Zimmerman, PH. D., Instructor in the German Department.
Rev. R. A. Jernberg, B. D., Instructor in the Dano-Norwegian Department.
Rev. Fridolf Risberg, Instructor in the Swedish Department.
Rev. M. W. Montgomery, Instructor in English in the Scandinavian Department.

Admission. — The Seminary is open to students of all denominations. Candidates for admission to the regular course must have received a collegiate education, or an equivalent preparation. Students from other seminaries may be admitted by certificate.

Terms and Vacations. — The next term will begin Wednesday, Sept. 9, 1891, and continue till the fourth Wednesday in April, when there will be a vacation of four months, for private study and remunerative Christian work.

Situation. — The Seminary Buildings front Union Park. The location is quiet, but the centre of the city may be reached in fifteen minutes.

Course of Study. — The Juniors have four exercises a week in Hebrew, four in Greek, and one each in Theology, History, Homiletics, and Elocution. The Middlers have five exercises a week in Theology, two each in History, Hebrew, and Greek, and one each in Homiletics and Elocution. The Seniors have three exercises a week in Homiletics, two each in Hebrew and Greek, three in History, one in Theology, and one in Pastoral Theology, besides private exercises in Homiletics and Elocution. The "Special Course" includes the full course in all the years, except Hebrew and Greek, and has the following supplementary studies, which are limited to the first year: Rhetoric, Logic, Moral Philosophy, and daily exercises in English Composition and Bible Exposition.

The German and the Scandinavian Departments. — Students in these departments take the regular or special course in the English language, according to their grade of preparation, that they may be able to preach also in English. They are, however, excused from some English studies, principally of a homiletical or practical kind, in place of which they attend such exercises in their own native languages as are best adapted to prepare them to minister to our German or Scandinavian fellow-citizens.

Examinations.—In each year there are two public examinations, oral and written, of all the classes.

The Alumni Institute will be held in anniversary week, April 21.

Hammond Library.—This contains the General and the Reference Library with over 9,400 volumes, and the Reading Room. Both of the latter are furnished with the best helps for students, and are open daily. The students have easy access, also, to the public libraries of Chicago, some of which are among the best endowed in the country.

Expenses.—No charges are made for instruction, or for the use of Hammond Library. Furnished rooms are assigned to new students, by the treasurer, in the order of application. The following charges are made for the occupancy of rooms in the Seminary buildings: incidentals and care of students' rooms, $15 a year; fuel and light, $15 a year. Good board can be had in private families in the neighborhood of the Seminary for $2.50 or $3.00 a week.

Pecuniary Aid. — From the American Education Society, to men in the regular course, $75 a year. Additional aid will be furnished to students desiring it, and fitted for such service, in return for service in city mission work. This supplemental aid is $100 and $125 a year, or $175 and $200 in all, according to the grade of work. Students in the Special Course get for such service $60 the first year, and $100 and $120 in the second and third years, according to grade of work. The aid to students in the Special and Foreign Departments of the first year is given only in the second half of the year to those who pass the Christmas examination.

For further information apply to Prof. H. M. Scott, 520 W. Adams Street, or Mr. H. W. Chester, 81 Ashland Boulevard, Chicago, Ill.

The Seminary is managed by a Board of Trustees, annually elected by The Pastoral Union, a large and increasing body of active ministers. The members of the Union, the Trustees, and the Faculty give assent to the creed of the Union as in accord with the doctrinal belief of historic Congregationalism.

The Bible holds a central position in the system of the institution. The course of study aims (1) to establish sound methods of investigating the Scriptures, (2) to train the power of formulating Scriptural truth, and (3) to indicate the way of applying that truth both to the facts of history and experience and to all problems of the present and the future. The Bible is minutely studied in its original languages; systems of faith and morals are inductively built up out of Biblical materials; every kind of practical question regarding individual and social life is studied in the light of Biblical revelation.

Hence the Seminary presents God's thought and God's will as the supreme objects of science and the supreme guides of conduct. It is thus forced to oppose all rationalistic and secularizing tendencies. Its chief purpose as an educational agency is the formation of personal religious character as the basis for scholarship, conduct, and power. The field of study covers three years, and embraces a central prescribed course in encyclopædia, Hebrew, Greek, history, systematic and practical theology, and the history of missions; and in addition, a large variety of electives in these and other branches of study, some portion of which must be chosen by every regular student. The method of instruction is partly through text-books, partly by lectures, and partly through original investigation on the part of the student. Emphasis is laid upon a close personal relation between instructor and pupil. The apparatus includes ample buildings, a library of 52,000 volumes and over 20,000 pamphlets, reading-room, gymnasium, etc. The habit of original investigation is diligently cultivated. Methods believed to be peculiarly effective are used in Hebrew and Greek, in history, in dogmatic theology, and in pastoral theology. In the latter field not only is instruction given in theory, but extensive practical work is expected in preaching, in the methods of all varieties of evangelistic and charitable effort, and in personal Christian work among all classes of men. Systematic instruction is provided in music and elocution. In view of the increasing value to students of theology of a knowledge of German, competent instruction in that language is provided.

Special and advanced courses are provided for those who desire them.

As incentives to scholarship, four prizes, two fellowships for foreign study, and suitable degrees (granted only on special examination) are offered.

Terms of Admission. — Candidates for admission must be members of some Christian church, and graduates of some college (or at least of sufficient literary acquisition to undertake the regular course). Those who are not college graduates may after examination be admitted on probation during the first semester.

All courses are open to women on the same terms as to men.

Expenses. — No charge is made for tuition, rooms, furniture, and bedding, or use of the library and apparatus, except a nominal fee of $20 for use of steam and for supervision. Board is provided at the Seminary under the care of the Students' Association at $3.50 per week. Scholarship aid is provided for those needing it to the amount of $60 to $100 per year, in addition to the grant of $75 from the Education Society. Various opportunities for remunerative work are open to those who desire it. Calendar. — The fifty-eighth year begins on Sept. 17, 1891, and closes on May 12, 1892, with recesses at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. For convenience the various courses are arranged in two semesters, the second of which begins on Jan. 18, 1892. Examinations are held at the close of both semesters.

For the annual Register, which gives full details of the course of study and of the entire Seminary organization, address either the President or the Registrar.

DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY IN OBERLIN COLLEGE,

OBERLIN, OHIO.

Opened for service in 1835.

FACULTY.

Rev. WILLIAM G. BALLANTINE, President, Professor of Old Testament Language and Literature.
Rev. JAMES H. FAIRCHILD, Finney Professor of Theology and Moral Philosophy.
Rev. G. FREDERICK WRIGHT, Professor of New Testament Language and Literature.
Rev. ALBERT H. CURRIER, Holbrook Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. FRANK H. FOSTER, Professor of Church History.
Rev. WILLIAM B. CHAMBERLAIN, Instructor in Elocution.
Professor of Hebrew and the Cognate Languages.
Rev. JOHN LEADINGHAM, Principal of the Slavic Department.
Rev. EDWARD I. BOSWORTH, Professor of the English Bible.
Rev. J. M. P. METCALF, Acting Professor of the English Bible.
LOUIS F. MISKOVSKY, B. S., Instructor in the Slavic Languages.
Rev. A. HASTINGS ROSS, Special Lecturer on Church Polity.
Douglas Lecturer on the Relations of Science and Religion, and on Comparative Religion.

The Department of Theology is open for the admission of students of every denomination. Students of this department are permitted to attend lectures and classes in the other departments, so far as they may have time, without extra charge. Upon those who complete the three years' Classical Course, the Academic Degree of Bachelor of Divinity (B. D.) is conferred.

CLASSICAL COURSE. — This has recently been greatly enlarged and rearranged upon the elective system. Candidates for a degree are required to have completed work amounting to 1,280 hours of lectures and recitations (besides rhetorical work). Of this work, 608 hours are required, including courses in Exegesis of the Greek New Testament, Natural and Revealed Theology, Church History, Homiletics, Relations of Science and Religion, and the Forms of Modern Scepticism.

In addition, 1,280 hours of elective work are offered, of which the student must elect at least 572 hours. The elective courses include Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis, Old Testament Introduction and Theology, Syriac, Arabic, Aramaic, Septuagint Greek, New Testament Exegesis, Church History, History of Doctrine, Church Polity, Homiletics, and Pastoral Theology.

ENGLISH COURSE. — This is to prepare mature men for the ministry in two years. It includes preparatory studies in Rhetoric and Philosophy, 304 hours Exegesis of the English Bible, Special Lectures, and the full course of Systematic and Practical Theology.

SLAVIC DEPARTMENT. — The object of this department is to train up pastors for the Slavic immigrants now in this country. It is in charge of a principal, an American, and a Bohemian-American instructor. The course of study occupies three years, and, in English, includes instruction in the Old and New Testaments, Mental and Moral Philosophy, Church History, and Theology. In Bohemian, the students are drilled in the preparation and delivery of such various addresses as may be required of them in their after-work.

LIBRARY. — The Library of the College contains over twenty thousand volumes.

COUNCIL HALL, the building devoted exclusively to the Department of Theology, provides fully furnished rooms for fifty students. No expense is incurred for instruction, or for the use of the library. The price of board is from $2.00 to $2.50 per week, or from $64 to $96 for the thirty-two weeks of the theological year. Expenses for heating the rooms and for incidentals are $30 annually, but the entire necessary expenses of the year— not including clothing, travelling expenses, and books — need not exceed $100.

Help is granted from scholarship funds contributed by friends of the Seminary and from the American Education Society. The amount ordinarily received from both these sources is $150.

The opportunities for students to aid in meeting their expenses are sufficiently numerous. Some are employed as teachers in the Preparatory School connected with the College, and the amount received for teaching an hour each day exceeds the cost of board. Many vacant pulpits in the vicinity are supplied by theological students, and compensation is rendered. During the summer vacation of four months, all may supply vacant pulpits in home-missionary and other fields; and such opportunities are abundant.

The year of study consists of thirty weeks in two half years. The next year begins Tuesday, Sept. 15, 1891.

PACIFIC THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Oakland, Cal.

Opened for service June, 1869.

FACULTY.

Joseph A. Benton, D. D., Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology, and (pro tem.) of New Testament Greek.
George Mooar, D. D., Professor of Biblical and Systematic Theology, and (pro tem.) of Church History.
Wallace W. Lovejoy, D. D., Professor of Old Testament Languages and Literature, and (pro tem) of New Testament Greek and Literature.
Lectures are given frequently by leading pastors of the State.

Regular Studies. — First Year. Greek; Hebrew; Sacred Geography and Antiquities. Origin, History, Authority, Inspiration, and Canon of the Bible; Interpretation of the Scriptures; Religions of the World, other than the Christian; Natural Science; Mental and Moral Science; Rhetorical Exercises.

Second Year. — Biblical Theology; Greek; Hebrew; Exercises in the Exposition of the Scriptures; Systematic Theology; History of Doctrines; Rhetorical Exercises continued.

Third Year. — Pastoral Theology; Church History; Church Polity; Homiletics; Rhetorical Exercises continued; Connection of Natural Science with Religion. [An Exercise in Hebrew and Greek Exegesis twice each week during the second and third years.]

Special Studies. — In special cases, particular and modified courses of instruction will be given to those who cannot remain three years, or who, for other reasons, cannot take the full course of three years; and these courses of instruction will be adapted to the necessities of each person, it being understood that every one of this class will continue his studies as long as practicable.

Preparatory Studies. — Young men who have not had the advantage of a collegiate course, and who are, for good reasons, debarred from the prospect of such a course, are enabled to pursue literary and scientific studies under the direction of the professors in the Hopkins Academy, immediately associated with the Seminary. These preparatory studies will vary with the requirements of each student.

Calendar. — The year consists of but one term, and begins with the first of September and ends with the middle of May. There will be a recess during the Christmas holidays. Students should begin promptly with the term.

Terms of Admission. — Credible evidence of piety, membership in some evangelical church, a collegiate education, or such other literary and scientific attainments as promise a fair degree of usefulness, will entitle all young men to the advantages of this Seminary. The benefits of the institution are accorded alike to students of all denominations of Christians.

Expenses. — There will be no charge for tuition, rent of rooms, or use of furniture. The trustees will, as far as practicable, furnish text-books free to those who are in need, themselves being the judges of the necessity. Those who desire it can board on the premises at the rate of $3.00 per week. Fifty cents additional will be charged for washing.

Pecuniary Aid. — The American Education Society will render aid to the pupils of this Seminary who are needy, who are college graduates, and who take the full course of three years. The amount bestowed will be, when possible, $100 a year to each beneficiary. Seven paying scholarships yield an average of about $130 each per year to nine beneficiaries.

An endeavor is continually made to provide for all the wants of every young man who wishes to take the full course of study, and every such person is urged to come to the Seminary, whether he has any means of his own or not. It is believed that the necessary expenses of a Theological School are less here than anywhere else in the Union.

No happier situation is known than the one occupied by this Seminary. The climate is unequalled for stimulating qualities, for mildness, and for general fineness. It is favorable to study every month in the year. It is a cure for many forms of invalidism. The scenery about the site is not inferior to that of the far-famed Bay of Naples itself. Both the beauties and the grandeurs of nature are within reach; and, to some extent, those of man, also.

Relation to the University. — The Divinity School is one of the Departments of Yale University. Its members receive from the Corporation, on completing their three-years' course of study, the degree of b. d. They have access to the public collections of the University, such as the Library, the Peabody Museum, and the collection of paintings and statuary in the School of the Fine Arts. They are permitted to attend free of expense, so far as will not conflict with their professional studies, the lectures and recitations in the College and the Sheffield Scientific School, and, if expecting to become foreign missionaries, those of the Medical Department.

Course of Study. — The first year is devoted chiefly to Hebrew and the Exegesis of the Greek New Testament; the second year to Systematic Theology, Church History, Old Testament Biblical Theology, and Church Polity; the third year to Sacred Rhetoric, the History of Christian Doctrine, and New Testament Biblical Theology. Additional lectures on Preaching and other important subjects are delivered before all the classes by eminent ministers and scholars in this country and Europe. There are also optional classes in German, Syriac, Chaldee, Arabic, and Assyrian. Once a week there is a Rhetorical Exercise for all the classes. Instruction in Vocal Culture and Elocution, and also in Sacred Music if desired, is continued through the entire course.

Graduate or Fourth-Year Class. — Students who have completed a three-years' course of theological study, here or elsewhere, are admitted to the Graduate Class, established ten years since, in which advanced studies in Theology are pursued under the direction of the Professors.

The Libraries of the University, to which the students have access, including the Reference Library of the Divinity School, contain more than 180,000 volumes.

The Graduate Fellowship, for the encouragement of further theological study in this country or abroad, the income of which is $500 for one year after graduation, is offered to the class entering in September, 1891.

Expenses. — There is no charge for instruction, use of libraries, or room rent. The rooms, which will accommodate one hundred and fifty students, are designed in general for only one occupant. Each room has a bedroom attached, and is carpeted and furnished with all needful furniture except bedclothing. The chief expenses for the session are for board, $3.00 to $4.00 a week; fuel and light, $25 to $30; and $15 a year for care of room and incidental expenses.

Scholarship Funds and other Aids. — Students whose circumstances require it are aided to the amount of $100 a year, from the income of scholarship funds. Additional aid to the amount of $75 is afforded by the American Education Society to its beneficiaries.

Commencement of the Term. — The next annual term of study will begin on Thursday, Sept. 24, 1891, and continue till the third Wednesday in May (anniversary), when the vacation of four months, in which the students have the opportunity to engage in some form of remunerative labor, will commence.

Application for Admission. — The Seminary is open on equal terms to students of all Christian denominations. Applications for admission, or for the annual Catalogue containing further information, may be made to the Dean of the Faculty, Prof. George E. Day, New Haven, Conn., or to any of the other Professors.

a These special students at Chicago are ranked, 31 with the Senior, 34 with the Middle, and 36 with the Junior classes ; 4 in the German, 15 in the Dano-Norwegian, and 38 in the Swedish departments.

b At Oberlin, 11 of the special students are in the Slavic department, 18 are Seniors and 9 are Juniors in an English course, and 10 are not classified.

NOTE. — If the Advanced or Graduate classes were included among the students as well as the undergraduates, the totals would be increased to 583.

COLLEGE EDUCATION OF THE UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS.

In this table, a number in parentheses denotes that that number, although once connected with the college mentioned, did not complete the course. The figures not in parentheses denote graduates of the college mentioned.

THE ANNUAL STATISTICS OF THE CHURCHES AND MINISTERS.

The following pages contain the statistics as collected in 1891 by the statistical secretaries of the several State organizations, and compiled for this publication by the secretary of the National Council, under vote of the publishing committee. They are all of date 1 Jan., 1891, except that ministerial supply is, as far as possible, brought down to date.

The secretary, as heretofore, in no case presumes to insert or omit the name of church or minister on any authority but that of the State secretaries representing their own organizations, or of councils subsequent to the date of annual reports.

The contents of the statistics are as follows: —

1. The statistics of the churches and their ministers, by States.
2. List of Congregational ministers in foreign lands.
3. The National, State, and local organizations of the churches, with officers, and dates of next sessions in 1891-2.
4. General summary tables for the year.
5. Tables of summaries, 1858-1890.
6. Remarks upon the statistics.
7. Alphabetical list of ministers, with P. O. address, and indexed to pages.
8. Alphabetical list of licentiates.
9. List of ministers of other denominations supplying Congregational churches.

RULES OF COMPILATION.

1. To arrange in alphabetical order everything capable of it; except that the churches in any one town or city arranged, as they should be, under the name of that town or city, are placed according to age.

2. To make each State list to conform strictly to the State boundaries. Churches or ministers reported by the association of a State other than their own are, therefore, transferred to their proper places; and the summaries are correspondingly corrected.

3. To make new tables each year. "Last year's report" (if known to be such) is always omitted. But, while old reports are not to be inserted in the table, the aggregate of such last reports from churches failing to report, in the items of church and Sunday-school membership, are included in the summaries. Justice to the churches which do report requires this, as their real progress may be apparently diminished or reversed, by lack of the figures from their less faithful neighbors. The special attention of State secretaries is called to this point, as it has often been disregarded. The list of churches of this year is compared, name by name, with that of last year, and all variations are specifically mentioned with the State summary, so that each church can be traced from year to year.

4. To examine carefully all the tables, with a view to correction or addition by correspondence, especially to correct "pastoral supply" to the latest moment. Proof-sheets have been sent to secretaries and some home-missionary superintendents who could be reached in season. But no such changes have been allowed to affect the summaries.

5. The prime name in a table line is always supposed to be the name of the place, town, or city in which the church is located, as determined by the place of the meeting-house. This is also the name of its post-office, unless followed in line or margin by a name in heavy-faced type. In such cases the latter is the post-office, and this emphatic type, in line or margin, is used exclusively for names of post-offices. If this postal word is an adjective, it goes with the preceding name, e. g., "Newton, West"; if itself a name, it supersedes the other, as "Newton, Auburn- dale." Postal designations are not repeated on the second page, and special church names are sometimes given in the second line, for which there was not room in the first. In general, the two pages, being invariably opposite, are treated as one, and marginal references on the second page are made to foot-notes on the first, without repetition when they occur there.

MINOR EXPLANATIONS.

1. Any church given in brackets is one organized since the date of State report; not included in the summary, but inserted for information. A few churches temporarily not associated are inserted by their own wish.

2. Pastors installed or recognized by council are marked "p. c."; pastors duly called by their churches and recognized by some "definite act of the church," but not by council, are marked p.; others in service are not marked, but in tabular summaries are counted as "supplies." Blanks in the column of pastoral supply, meaning no regularly engaged minister, are left blank for the convenience of those who note pastoral changes.

3. The tables are not a postal guide to the addresses of ministers, and any person so using them runs the risk of error. The General Alphabetical List of Ministers gives their post-offices.

4. The two columns following the names of ministers in the tables of churches denote (1) the year of ordination, (2) the year when the minister was installed, or commenced service with that church.

5. A star (*) in the General Alphabetical List of Ministers denotes that the person designated is found in the original State alphabetical list, but is not reported to be a member of any association or conference of ministers or churches in the United States; or that he is found supplying some church, or did so last year and may be presumed to be in transitu, but is not in the State alphabetical list.

6. Licentiates are not reckoned as ministers. Churches supplied by such, or by ministers of other denominations, are reckoned as vacant; but the number of such churches is given in each State summary. No ministers of other denominations (if so known) are inserted in the General Alphabetical List. Some ministers belong to the two denominations at once.

7. The names of some Congregational ministers are missing; but it is solely because they are not reported by any organization of churches or ministers.

8. Under "Church Members," "Absent" are included in "Males," "Females," and "Total." Under the head of "Removed," "Died," "Letter," and "Discipline" are represented by the abbreviations.

9. Blanks in any column of figures are such as were so left in the State Minutes. They ought always to signify "no report," but some States do not follow the proper rule of inserting a cipher where "none" is meant, and the examiner must conjecture, in any given case, whether "none" or "no report" is intended. In our General Summaries, a blank invariably signifies "no report."

As to "Contributions" and "Home Expenditures," in the earlier years reported above, it will be seen that this table is more an exhibit of the number of churches reporting than of totals raised. Before the issue of 1867, one half of the churches did not report either item; many States did not have the item in their schedules. But the more recent reports, while far from complete, are full enough for some consistency and a basis of reasonable comparisons and deductions.

In this table, the "new" churches are occasionally such as were previously "dropped," or have not been previously reported.

Under "Died" (Ministers), until 1873 no account was kept to distinguish between "acting pastors" and "without charge." The difference between "pastors" and "totals" includes these two classes. The fluctuations under "Benevolent Contributions" are greatly due to more or less full reports. See the annual number of churches reporting in table next above.

REMARKS UPON THE STATISTICS.

COMPARISONS between figures reported last year and this year are as follows, the specific changes by States being given in Summary IV.: —

LIST OF CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS IN THE UNITED STATES.

REPORTED BY THE SEVERAL STATE ORGANIZATIONS.

The following is a compilation of the alphabetical lists furnished by the State Associations and Conferences, corrected by correspondence with their secretaries to the latest possible date. The secretary of the Council in no case presumes to insert or omit a name upon his own responsibility. The State organizations (or later councils) are alone responsible; but the secretary has used his utmost endeavors to obtain a complete and correct list. If any names are omitted, it is because they are not reported by any organization in any State.

The figures refer to pages where the name will be found in the tables, in the Vital Statistics, in the service of the Benevolent Societies, of the Theological Seminaries, in the list of foreign missionaries. In some cases the page is left as in tables, when the post-office is changed since the tables were put to press.

Names starred (*) are of persons who, although mentioned (usually as supplying churches), are not reported as members of any organization of Congregational churches or ministers. A few names are also retained with a * of those who were in active service last year, and may be presumed to be in transitu. Such names are not continued a second year, without specific report.

Some post-office addresses are antiquated, but the best possible has been done.

Licentiates are not included in this list, but a list of licentiates follows this, and a list of ministers of other denominations.

Names of persons in last year's list, deceased since the issue of 1890, are retained, and are indexed to the pages of the "Vital Statistics" when found there.

Some errors will be found in first names, initials, and spelling. No pains have been spared to secure accuracy; but, effort failing, the compiler has not ventured to follow even his own convictions, against the unmistakable testimony of the reports.

Names differing only in a single letter and pronounced alike are treated as one name, but spelled according to report. Browne, Clarke, Curtiss, Griffith, etc., and names beginning with Mac. or Mc. are among this number. Names beginning with Mc. or St. are arranged as if the word was not abbreviated.

Letters for our missionaries will be addressed to the care of the society mentioned with the name, such societies (initials) being (as are all foreign addresses) in italics.

By vote of the last National Council (Minutes, page 26), the separate list of ministers without pastoral charge is omitted, and the usage of previous years is resumed. Such names, as they do not occur in the preceding tables, have no numeral page reference, and in place of it the year of ordination is given.

LIST OF LICENTIATES REPORTED.

THIS list contains the names of those apparently reported as under care, with references to the pages where any such are mentioned as supplying churches. It includes also some names starred (*), which denotes that these persons, while reported as supplying churches, are not reported to be approbated by, or under the care of, any Congregational organization.

Further. 1. This list does not agree with the number given in State Minutes, because all ordained since the lists were reported are here dropped. 2. The post-office addresses are often delusive, the place being that of temporary service only. 3. Names followed by State only are of persons approved in the State mentioned, no residence being reported. 4. The list is incomplete, because some States make no full report of licentiates. 5. The contracted name of a State in brackets means that the name was reported by that State, although the person may reside elsewhere.

THE LATEST AND BEST

Hymn and Tune Book for Congregational Churches.

JUST PUBLISHED:

Many Voices,

Or Carmina Sanctorum—Evangelistic Edition.

This latest addition to hymnology for Church worship is PREPARED BY REV. T. DEWITT TALMAGE, D. D., and contains many of the old hymns and tunes dear to the hearts of the American people, besides a choice selection of the new element becoming prevalent in the churches.

MANY VOICES CONTAINS

One Hundred selections of Popular Music, making the book valuable for evening services in the largest city churches, and just the book for smaller churches who want but one hymn book for all occasions.

Introduction price Music Edition, $1.00.
" " Word " .50.

Carmina Sanctorum,

Edited by Roswell P. Hitchcock, Zachary Eddy, and Lewis W. Mudge.

The Carmina Sanctorum, published by A. S Barnes & Co., stands in the very front rank of hymn and tune books. Its selection of both hymns and tunes is wise and choice.
New York, Nov. 9, 1888. HOWARD CROSBY.

Hymns and Songs

For Social and Sabbath Worship.

Though revised and issued as the Chapel Edition of Carmina Sanctorum by the same authors, this book is in no sense an abridgment of the larger collection, but possesses its own character, with much material both of hymns and tunes not found in its companion Hymnals.

The book exactly meets the wants of the majority of churches, since provision has been made for all the ordinary occasions of church life. It contains more than twenty-five hymns and tunes, commonly designated as Gospel Hymns, but only the best of these are selected. Editions, with and without Responses, for use in the Responsive Service. Introduction prices, with Responses, 75 cents; without Responses, 60 cents. Send for examination copy.

DR. MUDGE'S NEW PRAYER-MEETING BOOK.

Songs of Praise,

Edited by LEWIS WARD MUDGE, editor of "Songs for Social Worship," and associate editor of "Carmina Sanctorum."

Published in attractive style and at low prices. For use in Prayer Meetings, Christian Endeavor Societies, Christian Associations, and all Gospel Meetings. 503 hymns, 325 tunes, 21 doxologies, copious indexes. Introductory price, 50 cents; regular price, 75 cents.

NOTE.—The publishers would call attention to the varied and excellent array of Hymn and Tune Books. Every pastor or committee contemplating a change should send for examination copies of the above, which will immediately be forwarded upon request. Correspondence solicited.

A. S. BARNES & COMPANY,

751 Broadway - - - - - New York.

THIS is not an advertisement for a type foundry, but for THE TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD; but it is a most appropriate method, for that Company issues every desirable type of personal insurance, at lowest rates consistent with Safety, and amplest security: Life and Endowment Policies, Annuity Policies, Accident Policies, Combined Life and Accident Policies. As an Accident Company, it is the leading one of the world, and larger than all others in America together; starting with no legal monopoly or chartered advantage, the equity of its policies and the certainty and promptness of its payments have made the people "forsake all others and cleave to it" almost solely. As a Life Company it ranks among the leaders in the United States, in strength and in quality of goods: no other Life Policies as liberal cost as little money, no others as cheap give as much for the money. Both Life and Accident Policy may be combined in one if desired, at a low figure. Has paid Policy-holders $20,000,000, $1,727,000 of it in 1890. Assets, $12,244,000. Surplus, $2,081,000.

Westward the centre of Congregationalism has long been steadily advancing, until to-day by common consent it is located at Chicago, a city which, though in 1850 was without a single Congregational Church, in 1891 has become the metropolis of Congregationalism, having fifty of our churches within its boundaries.

It is fitting then that the leading Congregational city of our land, where the greatest of our seven theological seminaries is situated, should also be able to report

THE LARGEST PAPER IN OUR DENOMINATION.

Fortunately located in the very heart of the commercial, social, political, and religious activities of the times, with the strong Congregational environment of Chicago and of the thousands of our churches throughout the vast Interior, in the midst of an aggressive practical Christianity, a feature of this section, The Advance must naturally and inevitably come to be more and more widely recognized as in every respect

DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE.

Comprising its Antiquities, Biography, Geography, and Natural History. By WILLIAM SMITH. American Edition. Revised and edited by H. B. HACKETT, D. D., assisted by EZRA ABBOT, LL. D. With five hundred and ninety-six illustrations. In four volumes. With xxx, 3667 pages. The set, 8vo, $20.00; sheep, $25.00; half morocco, $27.50; half calf, extra, $27.50.

The Dictionary of the Bible edited by William Smith, LL. D., has become the standard Encyclopædia of Biblical knowledge wherever the English language is spoken. The editor, widely known through his classical dictionaries, etc., has brought all his experience and genius for organization to bear upon this work; and the list of his associates comprises such names as Alford, Blakesley, Bonar, Davies, Deutsch, Ellicott, Farrar, Fergusson, Ffoulkes, Grove, Hervey, Hooker, Houghton, Howson, Huxtable, Layard, Lightfoot, Meyrick, Oppert, Perowne, Plumptre, Poole, Porter, Pritchard, Rawlinson, Stanley, Thomson, Tregelles, Tristram, Twistleton, Westcott, Wordsworth, Wright.

There are several American editions of Smith's Dictionary of the Bible, but this edition comprises not only the contents of the original English edition, unabridged, but very considerable and important additions by the editors, Professors Hackett and Abbot, and twenty-six other eminent American scholars. This edition has 500 more pages than the English, and 100 more illustrations; more than a thousand errors of reference in the English edition are corrected in this; and an Index of Scripture passages illustrated is added.

"To the careful scholarship of these two American professors we are indebted for what is unquestionably the most accurate and serviceable work of its kind for the general student in any tongue."— Prof. J. HENRY THAYER.

"What was, to begin with, the best book of its kind in our language, is now still better."— Prof. ROSWELL D. HITCHCOCK.

A HARMONY OF THE FOUR GOSPELS, IN ENGLISH.

According to the common Version. Newly arranged, with Explanatory Notes, by EDWARD ROBINSON, D. D. Revised Edition, with Footnotes from the Revised Version of 1881, and Additional Notes, by Prof. M. B. RIDDLE, D. D., recently of the Hartford Theological Seminary. 8vo, $1.50.

Dr. Robinson's English Harmony, which has long been the standard work of its class, is now revised so as to include the results of the very fruitful studies of the Gospels in recent years.

"To the majority of the lay-members of our Congregational churches it is an invaluable help, if they can have readily at hand such aid to the comprehension of our Saviour's life, and such light upon the real intent of many of his utterances, as are best obtained from the close comparison of the statements in their true chronological order — from their different angles of observation — of two or more of the evangelists. Forty years ago Dr. Edward Robinson published such a Harmony. . . . Now the volume has been taken in hand by Dr. M. B. Riddle, of the Hartford Seminary, and, on the basis of the old, a new edition has been prepared which bears — we may literally say in every line — the marks of close and conscientious, as well as accurate, supervision."— The Congregationalist.

"This new volume is, all in all, as nearly perfect as may be, and we are sure that it will be received with special favor by all students of the sacred Word."— New York Evangelist.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO., BOSTON.

The Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society makes the following Suggestions to Sunday-School Superintendents, Librarians and Library Committees.

The best way to get a new Library for your Sunday School, or to replenish the old one, is to give us the following particulars, and we will then send you a selection of books which we consider suitable for your use. Let your Committee read these and retain such as meet their approval.

Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society, Boston and Chicago.

We want to know: (a) How much money you have to spend; (b) what books are now in your Library, if you have one (send Catalogue); (c) date when last purchase of books was made; (d) ages of the readers to be supplied; (e) the proportion of books required for younger children, if any; (f) any particular line of books which you do or do not want; (g) any special titles which you wish included in the lot.

Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society, Boston and Chicago.

You will be better satisfied with your choice of books if, giving us the above particulars, you allow us, as suggested, to make the first selection. Our Reading Committee and Library Clerks are experts in this line. We know the whole field of Sunday-School literature. We never send out an unworthy book if the matter is left in our hands.

Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society, Boston and Chicago.

We recommend to Sunday-School Librarians the use of the PILGRIM LIBRARY RECORD.

The Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society publishes valuable religious and theological works of denominational and general interest, books of standard merit for Sunday-School Libraries, the best and most practicable church and Sunday-School requisites (The Pilgrim Church Register, The Pilgrim Sunday-School Records), and the Pilgrim Series of Lesson Helps (Pilgrim Quarterlies, Teacher, etc.) and Sunday-School Papers (Wellspring, Mayflower), which have attained a circulation of over 625,000.

New Religious Books.

WHO WROTE THE BIBLE?

By Washington Gladden, D. D., author of "Applied Christianity," "The Lord's Prayer," etc. 16mo, $1.25.

In this book, Dr. Gladden gives the results of the best modern scholarship with regard to the authorship of the Bible. To quote his own statement regarding it: "The aim of this volume is to put into compact and popular form, for the benefit of intelligent readers, the principal facts upon which scholars are now generally agreed concerning the literary history of the Bible." The work follows the conservative criticism which "has not been unwilling to look at the facts, but has held toward the Bible a devout and sympathetic attitude; which believes it to contain, as no other book in the world contains, the message of God to men; and which has only sought to learn from the Bible itself how that message has been conveyed."

There must be a large class of readers to whom a book on this important subject, written with discrimination, candor, and reverence, will be very welcome.

CHARLES G. FINNEY.

Vol. V. of American Religious Leaders. By George Frederick Wright, Professor in Oberlin Theological Seminary. 16mo, gilt top, $1.25.

President Finney was one of the most alert, eloquent, and effective leaders of American religious thought. As teacher, author, and evangelist, he exercised a most remarkable sway over multitudes. Professor Wright has told excellently the story of his career, and forcibly portrayed him as the great religious leader he was.

Paris Exhibition, 1889

Highest Award

The Grand Prize.

America and Great Britain's Eminent Scholars and Divines of all denominations pronounce the Genuine Oxford Bible

THE BEST AND MOST COMPLETE BIBLE PUBLISHED.

AMERICA.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TIMES, Philadelphia: "We have no reason to change our expressed opinion that the 'Oxford' Teachers' Bible is the most serviceable for the use of the ordinary Sunday-School Teacher."

REV. T. DeWITT TALMAGE, D. D., October, 1890: "During my recent journeying in Palestine, I found the 'Oxford' Teachers' Bible helpful, accurate, and indispensable."

BISHOP JOHN H. VINCENT, of the M. E. Church: "All things taken into consideration, it is one of the most perfect editions of the Sacred Scriptures I have ever seen. I would gladly see it in the hands of every Sunday-School Superintendent and Teacher in America."

GREAT BRITAIN.

REV. C. H. SPURGEON: "The very best. I have carefully examined the volume, and can unreservedly recommend it."

DR. PARKER: "It is the most superb, complete, and useful edition of the Holy Scriptures in the English language I have ever seen."

REV. ANDREW THOMSON, D. D., of Edinburgh: "The essence of fifty expensive volumes, by men of sacred learning, is condensed into the pages of the 'Oxford' Bible for Teachers."

THE BISHOP OF EDINBURGH: "Beyond question THE Bible for the busy clergyman. In beauty and excellence it has never been surpassed."

"One of the most valuable and convenient modern helps to the study of the Scriptures. . . . It is not to be wondered at that 'Oxford' Teachers' Bible has met with general favor in Great Britain and America."—REV. GEO. E. DAY, D.D., in Congregationalist, June 26, 1890.

OBERLIN COLLEGE.

DEPARTMENT ON THEOLOGY. — Instruction is given by the President and seven Professors and by eminent special lecturers appointed from year to year. Students have commodious furnished rooms in COUNCIL HALL, which is devoted exclusively to the uses of this department. They have free access to all the classes, libraries, and cabinets of the other departments. Three months during the summer can be spent in home-missionary or other labor, with compensation, without interference with studies. During the last half of the course the students have frequent opportunities to supply the neighboring churches. Students who need pecuniary assistance receive the usual aid from the American Educational Society, and such appropriations from special funds under the control of the Seminary as enable them, with reasonable economy, to pursue their course without interruption or embarrassment. Extended Elective Courses.

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY AND THE ARTS. — Eighteen Professors, besides Instructors and Tutors, give instruction in this department. There are three regular courses — Classical (for degree of A. B.); Philosophical (for degree of Ph. B.); Scientific (for degree of B. S.); all requiring the same amount of preparation. The Scientific course is opened for the first time in the fall of 1891, to entering Freshmen only. One half of the work in the Classical and Philosophical courses is elective. More than one hundred elective courses are offered in seventeen departments of work. There has been, within the year, a large extension of the work in Philosophy and in Mathematics. The large number of elective courses give special opportunities for graduate study.

DEPARTMENT OF PREPARATORY INSTRUCTION. — Comprises a Classical School, which prepares students for the best college, and an English School, which offers the advantages of a first-class Academy to those who can spend but little time at school. Instruction is given by the Principal of this department, two tutors, and about twenty-five special teachers.

Expenses in all departments for tuition, incidentals, and board are low. (1,709 students last year — a majority from outside of Ohio.) Students who do not wish to take a full course can select such studies in any department as they are prepared to pursue to advantage. Both sexes admitted. Location healthful, and religious influences the best. No drinking saloons in town. In all departments, Fall Term begins Sept. 15, 1891, except in Theological Department. Winter Term begins Jan. 5, 1892; Spring Term begins April 5, 1892. Circulars, with full information, sent free by

G. W. SHURTLEFF, Secretary, Oberlin, Ohio.

OBERLIN CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

The attention of music students is invited to the unequaled combination of advantages to be found at this Conservatory. (1) It is carried on in an eminently religious atmosphere. Its teachers are all Christian men and women, who believe the highest attainments in music should not be gained, as they too often are, with a lapse from bad habits or the loss of Christian faith. (2) Its instruction is of the most thorough sort. It aims to give that genuine culture in music which is much more than the mere ability to sing a song or thrum an instrument. (3) its charges are very low. The entire expenses of a music student in a College year need not exceed $300 to $350, and with careful economy may be brought still lower. (4) Those who wish to give only a part of their time to music are able to pursue other studies, under the best of teachers, in any of the other departments of Oberlin College.

Five hundred and ninety-five students were in attendance at this Conservatory last year, and it has more applications every year for teachers, organists, etc., than it can fill from its graduates. For catalogue and fuller particulars, address PROF. F. B. RICE, Director, Oberlin, Ohio.
